

Theme 1 ideas

Theme name- Working for Him

Meaning- We aren't working for ourselves or others, we are working for Him and His glory

Colors- Navy blue, white, and gold

Design idea- Using pencils and markers drawing some of the picture or captions, adding sticky notes and putting comments on them

Theme 2 ideas

Theme name- Hi Ho, it's off to work we go

Meaning- We are working cheerfully and are on our way to God's kingdom

Colors- Blue, yellow, and red

Design idea- Making the dwarfs marching up to Heaven with Bibles and stuff

Theme 3 ideas

Theme name- Hard workers

Meaning- We are working hard for God

Colors- Navy blue, white, and gold

Design idea- On the cover, do a Dasche lanyard with the students name being hard workers and the emergency contact spot would be God

Theme 1

Name: the Beginning, Middle, End

Meaning: our yearbook will have the beginning of a new chapter. The middle of meeting new people and learning new things. And the end means the end of our school year and us now getting ready to start a new chapter.

Colors: dark brown, vintage cream & maroon .

Design: pictures with the dates on the side and the chapter number on every page to represent it as a story.

Theme 2

Name: Our Seasons

Meaning: our yearbook will contain the valleys that we've been through and guided through with each other through God.

Colors: sage leaf green, mocha, & magnolia

Design: leaves and vines that have some scars that are new and healed and some that are also growing through the pages that represent us growing through rough seasons

Theme 3

Name: Hey there!

Meaning: our yearbook will contain pictures of memories we took pictures and an explanation why we took a picture of that memory so it will be like we are talking to the people through the book

Colors: dark vanilla, a very dark, desaturated shade of blue, & dark grayish blue

Design: quotes from people, objects that represents moments/memories from the pictures, and at the end of the page could say, "see you next year!"

Yearbook Week Two

My Yearbook Theme Ideas

Theme 1: Going through the backpack

Theme Name: Going through the year

Meaning: Going through your backpack is like going through the year remembering what happened during the year and seeing how you have grown.

Colors: Purple, yellow, dark blue, and pink

Design Idea: Through the Yearbook you could add an old notebook paper that's all crumbled up and old assignments that you could write on.

Theme 2: The Trail of The Year

Theme Name: A Long Walk Through The Year

Meaning: As you walk through the year you recall all the things that happened in the year like times with friends or funny moments in class.

Colors: Green, orange and pink

Design Idea: At the bottom of the pages you could put tutors walking on a trail looking up at the pictures and they can slowly get farther and farther on the trail as you turn the pages.

Theme 3: The Forming Year

Theme Name: The Year as it Grows

Meaning: It shows how we grew and the friendships that were grown.

Colors: Black, white, purple, pink and blue

Design Idea: At the first page you can put just pencil outlines then it forms into a beautiful picture as the pages go on.

Theme One

Brainstorm Your Theme

Scripture: Colossians 3:23

How could your theme reflect Colossians 3:23 and represent our school year?

1. It's like the Lord can go through the year with you and see how you've grown.

Theme Two

Brainstorm Your Theme

Scripture: Colossians 3:23

How could your theme reflect Colossians 3:23 and represent our school year?

2. When you walk down memory lane that year is in your heart, and the lord is with you every moment.

Theme Three

Brainstorm Your Theme

Scripture: Colossians 3:23

How could your theme reflect Colossians 3:23 and represent our school year?

3. Reflects On this theme, because it shows how Dache starts out as a regular outline and slowly grows into a beautiful picture in your heart.

Theme 1:

Theme Name: we did it together

Meaning: our yearbook will tell the story of how we came together as one community and had fun, made friends, and praised God through it all

Colors: cream, turquoise, and baby blue

Design Idea: ripped paper, tape holding the paper, and use this font

Theme 2:

Theme Name: a person's a person no matter how small

Meaning: our yearbook will show that everyone was seen, heard, and loved this year

Colors: pastel pink, pastel green, and pastel yellow

Design Idea: use the dr suess font, horton the elephant on the pages, and make the pages fun colors